

Vienna July 1 - 5, 2019

Vienna International Centre, Austria

International Conference on Drug Prevention, Treatment and Care: Inspiration & Direction

Join drug demand reduction professionals from Europe and around the world for five days of training, plenary and poster sessions, networking, exhibits, culture and community. The conference will bring together national and international experts in drug prevention, treatment and care and will feature a broad range of topics and formats.

The conference will include keynote sessions on:

Our international partners will provide evidence-based and high-quality training in the following areas:

- Genetics and neurobiology, Prevention and treatment innovations,
- Prevention and treatment systems, Social determinants,
- Law enforcement, criminal justice and health cooperation,
- Overdose prevention, Special populations

- Family-based, school-based & media-based prevention
- Prevention interventions in Europe
- Counselling skills for addiction professionals
- Policy-maker training in nature, prevention and treatment of drug use disorders
- Treating adolescents with substance use disorders
- Community anti-drug coalitions
- Children's substance use prevention and treatment
- Motivational interviewing skills
- Advanced clinical skills and crisis management
- Drug-free workplace

We have an ever-expanding list of experts from around the globe who will be talking about their latest research and practice within the substance use prevention, treatment and recovery field. View the conference programme here: www.issup.net/about-issup/issup-workshops/vienna-2019/conference-programme

Registration is FREE !
Don't miss out and secure your place today.

Registration will close on June 19th, 2019 - 12 pm CET

Contact: events@issup.net www.issup.net/about-issup/workshops/vienna-2019